IAAPA MEMBERSHIP TERMS

- Dues: IAAPA membership is for a calendar year, January–December. Dues are not prorated.
- Renewal: Invoices for membership dues renewal are sent to all members in late Fall for the next calendar year. Dues invoices are payable Jan. 1. A membership certificate will be sent after full payment is received. New memberships received after September 15 will be valid until December 31 of the following year.
- Suspension: If dues are not paid within 90 days, membership will be considered past due and services will be suspended. Membership privileges will be reinstated at any time during the remaining months of the year after the full payment is received. Past due invoices for other services rendered will also be cause for suspension, even if membership dues have been paid in full. This includes past due advertising and exhibitor fees. Membership will be reinstated after full payment of outstanding invoice(s).
- Termination: Members who have not paid their membership dues are terminated on Dec. 31. When a member is terminated, membership continuity and seniority are surrendered. Membership privileges are not reinstated, but terminated members can apply for a new membership.
- Amusement Ride Safety Report: As part of IAAPA membership, it is required by all U.S. amusement facility/attractions members who operate amusement rides to submit an annual Ride Safety Report through the National Safety Council (NSC). Failure to submit this required report will result in suspension/termination of your IAAPA membership.
- $110 USD of membership dues are applied to a subscription for Funworld magazine and cannot be deducted from the membership fee. Does not apply to student members.
- IAAPA membership dues are considered a business expense and may be tax deductible for members residing the United States. IAAPA does engage in lobbying efforts and therefore, under federal law 32% of a membership dues payment is nondeductible; 68% is deductible as a business expense.
